JUDGES MILLS AND TAYLOR,

It is always a pleasure to the members of the bar when the two Judges, Messrs Mills and Taylor come on the bench. There is no blustering nor pretentions with these two Judges. Judge Mills doesn't believe in large fines for petty offenses. He knows no man by his color. He has a quick consention. ception of human nature and no guilty

Mr. Cueson said that he informed his church that no man like Astwood could preach in the face of the charges made by the BEE and he not having made any attempt to despose them.

Taylor is a member of the advisory board and it was at his sug gestion that the Congressional club and Mr. Stills committee were invited to Taylor's headquarters. The trouble with Taylor is that the Still committee and the Congressional club are the only two colored democratic organizations recogniz ed by the National Democratic body.

Taylor failed to get his fingers in the pie.

THE SCHOOLS.

Every indication points to the re-appointment of Mr. Lewis A. Cornish to the trusteeship of the 8th school division.

Certainly commissioner Ross will not embarrass the people by a change in that school division. Col. Ross will first consider the character of the men who want the change made and whether such immoral characters are of sufficient weight to demand the removal of Mr. Cornish. Those who want Mr. Cornish removed are a set of blackguards, thieves and ex-

A DIVISION OF THE CULOR-ED VOTE.

The colored vote which was at one time an important factor in republican politics has at last divided. Some are of the opinion for the enemy. that the democratic party will do what is fair and just.

The recent election in Alabama will demonstrate that fact and it is to be seen whether Col. Oats will recognize any faction of the colored vote that supported him.

The BEE is of the impression rich and racy. that the colored vote South should devide and the negroes should do as their white fellow cilizens.

The colored man in business South is doing well and it is only a question of time before he will be a strong factor in this country. He is a success in almost every avenue of life and it is to his interest to unite as a race.

OUR MISSION.

The BEE has never at any time been the medium through which persons could vent their spleen. It is a public journal and its mission has been to protect the people against the impo ition of frauds, lib ertines and other rascals.

No honest man or woman, no moral man or pure woman will object to being protected against scoundrels.

This city has been the dumping ground for exconvicts, and expelled members of other societies and other places. The BEE has watched with a jealous eye the people's interests and when those interests are being destroyed by black legs and other notorious men and wo men it is about time that we should call a bult

The BEE certainly intends to have Mr. Taylor investigated, because he is not the proper man to be recorder of deeds. The President has been imposed upon aud the BEE doesn't propose to allow Mr Ol-veland to be embarrassed.

The colored people should keep out of the Police Court.

In another column of this paper will be seen the editors letter to Hop. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior. The Secretary has been out of town, hence we have recei ed no answer as yet.

Our next letter to the Secretary no doubt he will answer.

THE FREEDMEN'S HOS PITAL

Before Mr. Pulies attempts to give advice he should first know the difference between charges made against a man and conspiracy. It is not conspiracy when a man is charged with prostituting his office, and want young ladies to

The removal of Dr. H. M. Hammett from the health office and the appointment of Dr. Woodward is an improvement.

The big wind bag from Kansas called ou Public Printer Benedict to have our sister removed because he refused to indorse his immoral acts in the conduct of his office. C. H. J. Taylor is not opposed by the BEE because he is a democrat but because he has not properly con ducted himself since his appointment.

A man who is so cowardly as to fight a woman is too cowardly to defend his public acts. Mr. Benedict gave him to understand that he was Public Printer and that C. low me to state, and that plainly, that H. J. Taylor could get even with the brother and not attempt to injure the sister.

An Increase in the Labor Unions

Detroit, July 31.—Samuel Gom President of the American Federation of Labor, speaking of the recent strike, said: "Although failing in the dramatic sense, workmen have secured many advantages by it. Concessions of more or less importance have been made by ployers in over 1,000 instances for the purpose of avoiding what they have imagined would be a general strike for Improved conditions. The injunctions of the courts, while they had the effect to defeat the railroad strike, have made the workingmen feel more keenly than ever that if they expect any material change from existing wages they must depend whol-on themselves and their own efforts. The strike has given great impetus to organizations in the trades and callings. There are 100,000 more men in the unions than there were two months ago."
